

Attendance at Wycliffe Hall
(with specific reference to visiting scholars, pastors and associate students)

Visiting Scholar and Pastor

There are two types of Visiting Scholar and Pastor:

1. Research only

The visitor is allowed access to Wycliffe Hall library and benefits from exposure to the Wycliffe Hall community.

The current cost is £80 per week, exclusive of accommodation and meal costs.

2. Supervision by a Wycliffe Tutor

In addition to the benefits given to the research visitor, the visitor will be allowed to attend Wycliffe Hall lectures and receive some oversight and guidance from the Tutor. This is only available by prior arrangement with the tutor.

In addition to the research cost (£80), the visitor will pay for

- Lectures at £10 per lecture;
- Tutorial sessions at £25 per session.

These fees are exclusive of accommodation and meal costs.

Associate Student

Associate students follow a part of one of our existing courses and relate to a Wycliffe Tutor who will assist the student maximise their time at Wycliffe. Whether it be one week (usually our ISW programme), one term or one year associate students enjoy the full status of Wycliffe students. This is only available by prior arrangement with the tutor.

The current cost is £192 per week, exclusive of accommodation and meal costs.

Accommodation fees

Accommodation is only available for single students in a single room in the Hall. Full board is £170 per week.

A study desk and meals during the week (5days) is £79 per week.

A study desk is £30 per week.

Bodleian Library

The Bodleian Library charge for a reader's card (if available) the following rates are illustrated on their website <http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/bodley>.

Attendance at lectures only

It may be possible to attend some lectures by prior arrangement with the tutor. The costs are as follows:

- Lecture; £10
- Focus Day: £25 for the morning, £30 for all day (excluding lunch)